1 The Opening
Al Fāṭḥah
Early Meccan Period

2 Introduction
Muhammad (ﷺ) was frightened of the visions and words he was receiving in his ministry. At the age of forty, he had experienced a supernatural vision in a mountain cave. A voice had told him that he was appointed as a prophet. He said some rhythmic words to him. (See chapter 96 for this first revelation.)
He didn't understand what was happening to him at first, but his wife Khadijah, later assured him that he had been contacted by an angel.
Now, whenever he would walk in the desert outside of his home, he would sometimes hear the voice of that hidden spirit calling out to him for safety of his home. (See introductions to chapters 73 and 74.)
When he again told his wife's cousin Waraqaah about this continuing vision, Muhammad (ﷺ) stayed and listen and report back to him with what he had heard. Accordingly, one day Muhammad (ﷺ) stood his ground when he was walking in the countryside. When the voice called out his name, Muhammad (ﷺ) recite yet further a new set of phrases, which were the verses of this chapter below. (Wahid)

5 Ülkü --

In the Name of Allah,
the Compassionate, the Merciful (1)

Praise be to Allah, Lord of All the Worlds; *
the Compassionate, the Merciful *
and Master of the Day of Judgment. (2-4)

To You alone do we offer service and to You alone do we look for aid. (5)

Guide us on the straight path: *
the path of those whom You have favored,
not of those who've earned Your anger,
nor of those who've gone astray. (6-7)
